Circular No. MF27/2020

10 JUNE 2020

DEAR MEMBER FIRMS

REVISED STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES AND RECOVERY MOVEMENT CONTROL ORDER (RMCO) STARTS FROM 10 JUNE TO 31 AUGUST 2020

On 3 June 2020, the Majlis Keselamatan Negara (MKN) issued the revised Standard Operating Procedures \(SOP\) for Professional Services Sector. The additional requirements that have been incorporated in the latest SOP are as follows:

- The requirement for the employer to brief its employees on COVID-19 and its preventive measures and
- The requirement for the employees and clients to install the MySejahtera application into their mobile phone for the purpose of tracing of close contacts.

On a separate update, Prime Minister Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin announced on 7 June 2020 that the Conditional Movement Control Order (CMCO) would end on 9 June 2020 and would be replaced with the Recovery Movement Control Order (RMCO) from 10 June to 31 August 2020. With the RMCO, interstate travel is allowed except for Enhanced MCO areas and domestic travel is also allowed. Meetings and workshops can be conducted subject to stringent adherence to health and safety protocols.

Please be guided accordingly.

Thank you.

Yours faithfully
